

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

PROVO.

A very pretty appointed 5 o'clock tea was served by Mrs. E. E. Corfman at her home Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Lena Bachman. This event was the formal announcement of Miss Bachman's engagement to C. O. Baker, whose marriage will take place the first of September. The rooms were decorated in rose color. The table, which was laid for ten, was unique and artistically arranged. A large heart of sweet peas formed the centerpiece, from which a satin streamer, on the end of which was a heart-shaped card, hung down to the floor. The cards appeared to have been sent by the room-elect. Each course was served in hearts. After tea an arrow shooting contest was participated in, the target of which was a large heart.
